

SIS 425: SEMESTER IN SPAIN INTERNSHIP – 2 credits

This course is a 2-credit internship offered during the month of May after the conclusion of the SIS spring term. SIS 425 is available to students who will have completed at least two advanced level classes during the Spring semester and are interested in completing an 80-hour internship placement in a Spanish agency or business using their advanced language skills. The course includes a 1-2 hour weekly professional seminar in a classroom setting.